WEST POINT, N. Y., March 26.—Cornell's fencers, with a record of twenty-eight victories in thirty-six bouts with foils, were the leaders tonight, as four other colleges of the Central Division of the Intercollegiate Fencing Association continued to fight it out in an effort to qualify teams and individuals in three weapons for the finals at New York next month. Only the foils bouts had been completed.

The Cornell foilsmen won all four of their team matches in qualifying for the finals. They defeated Hamilton by 9-0, Ohio State by 7-2 and Dartmouth and the Army by 6-3.

Chardon of Cornell, a tall swordsman with plenty of reach and good form, was the leading individual performer with the foils. He won 11 out of 12 bouts, only Cetrulo of Dartmouth defeating him in a hard fought bout by a single touch, 5 to 4.

Besides Cornell, the Army, Dartmouth and Hamilton may send individuals into the final foils events, Ohio State being definitely out. With the epee, Britton of Hamilton and Sands of the Army were considered likely to qualify.
