ANNAPOLIS Md., March 18.—Columbia and the Naval Academy qualified here today with the foils and saber for the finals of the Intercollegiate Fencing Association which will be held in New York on March 28 and 29.

Other finalists in the four-cornered semi-final competition among Penn, Princeton, Columbia and the Naval Academy were Princeton and the Navy with the épée. Penn failed to qualify with either of the three weapons.

The individual qualifiers were: Alessandroni and Cantino, both of Columbia, and Wait, Naval Academy, with the foils; Eller and Loomis for the Naval Academy and Roth of Columbia, with the sabre; Ellis and Wilbur of the Naval Academy and Lobenstine, Princeton, with the épée.

The Middles qualified five fencers in the individual competition and Columbia followed with three, while Princeton had the other one.
