

PALM BEACH, Fla., Feb. 25.—The annual Scotch foursome at Palm Beach to-day was won by William Anderson, thrice former National open champion, playing with E. Lee Jones, amateur of Chicago. Anderson's home green at present is the Onwentsia Club of Chicago. Their best ball score was 64. Second prize went to Gilbert Nicholls of Boston, runner-up in the last National open championship, and E. H. Worthington of New York. Their score was 67.

Columbia to Play Penn To-night.

On the result of the basketball game to-night between Columbia and the University of Pennsylvania, to be played in the Columbia gymnasium on Morningside Heights, depends Penn's final claim to the intercollegiate championship of 1908. If the Quakers win they clinch the title, but should Columbia win there is a possibility that Cornell may also defeat Penn on Friday night, in which case there would be a tie for the title between Pennsylvania and Columbia.

Columbia Freshman Fencers Win.

Columbia's freshman fencers defeated the trio from Lawrenceville School yesterday afternoon in the local collegians' fencing room by a score of 6 bouts to 3. The freshmen had a comparatively easy time with their opponents, Ransom and Pitt winning all three of their bouts. The summary:

First Round.—Ransom beat Baldwin, Pitt beat Brubach, and Dawes beat Cardoza.

Second Round.—Ransom beat Brubach, Pitt beat Dawes, and Baldwin beat Cardoza.

Third Round.—Ransom beat Dawes, Pitt beat Baldwin, and Brubach beat Cardoza.

Mrs. Burgess Still Chess Champion.

By winning the fifth game of the match for the woman's chess championship of the United States, contested at the Hotel Martha Washington yesterday morning, Mrs. S. R. Burgess of St. Louis successfully defended her right to the title, for the possession of which she had been challenged by Mrs. C. E. Nixdorff of Cambridge, Mass., last week. The final score stood at 4 games to 1 in favor of the champion, Mrs. Nixdorff having won the third game only on Friday.
